

Privacy Policy

Becker Watt Lawyers Pty Ltd is committed to providing quality legal services to you and this document outlines our ongoing obligations to you in respect of how we manage your Personal Information.

What is Personal Information and why do we collect it?

Personal Information is information that identifies an individual. Examples of Personal Information we collect includes names, addresses, email addresses, phone and facsimile numbers.

This Personal Information is obtained in many ways including website contact form submissions and your interaction with our business via phone, email or in-person.

We collect your Personal Information for the primary purpose of providing our services to you. We may also use your Personal Information for secondary purposes closely related to the primary purpose, in circumstances where you would reasonably expect such use or disclosure. You may unsubscribe from our mailing/marketing lists at any time via the link in our emails.

When we collect Personal Information we will, where appropriate and possible, explain to you why we are collecting the information and how we intend to use it.

Disclosure of Personal Information

Your Personal Information will not be disclosed to 3rd parties except in the following instances:

- Where you consent to the use or disclosure; and
- Where required or authorised by law.

Security of Personal Information

We store your Personal Information in a way that reasonably protects it from misuse, loss or unauthorised access.

When your Personal Information is no longer required for the purpose for which it was obtained, we will take reasonable steps to destroy or permanently de-identify your Personal Information.

Access to your Personal Information

You may access the Personal Information we hold about you and to update it when required. If you wish to access your Personal Information, please contact us in writing.

In order to protect your Personal Information, we may require identification from you before releasing the requested information.
